7. A security payment of two hundred dollars ($200.00) for windows and one hundred dollars ($100.00) for doors must be deposited with the Architectural Control Committee before commencement of the replacement can begin. The Committee will return the security payment to the homeowner upon completion of the work and final inspection and approval.
8. The window addition will be the sole responsibility of the homeowner. Homeowner also agrees to keep window addition well maintained at their own expense. This includes but is not limited to the following: replacement of glass, cleaning, painting, and caulking.
9. Responsibility of the window addition including maintenance shall be transferred to any subsequent owner upon sale of the home. It is the responsibility of the present homeowner to inform the new homeowners of this prior to the sale of their home.
10. Any subsequent structural damage to the building resulting from the installation of the window addition, either directly or indirectly, shall be the responsibility of the homeowner or corrected at the expense of the homeowner.
11. Any cost incurred by the Board of Managers due to the window addition for emergency repairs and/or failure of the homeowner to keep the window addition maintained in good condition shall be at the homeowner's expense; and will be billed to that homeowner.
12. The Committees approval of an application for said work will become null and void if the work is not begun within sixty days and the job must be completed within ninety days after written receipt of approval. If the work is not completed within this time frame, a new application must be submitted and approval will again be required.

If the work performed does not pass Blue Ridge Engineering inspection, the homeowner must make corrections within 30 days or bond is forfeited and the offending project will be removed at the homeowner's expense.

I have read the above rules and restrictions and requirements regarding window additions and I agree to be bound by them. I fully understand and acknowledge that if I do not full/comply with the above specifications that I will forfeit my entire security bond in the amount of $200.00 for windows and/or $100.00 for a door.
